Dear Ivan:

During your Conduct Resolution Meeting with me, we would have discussed allegations that your actions violated the following policies:

- Student Accountability/6.d. Violation of the Policies for On-Campus Housing./Guests & Visitors
- Student Accountability/3.a. Uncooperative behavior and/or failure to comply with reasonable instructions of University Officials acting in performance of their duties.

We were scheduled to meet for a Conduct Resolution Meeting on May 9 and May 15. You failed to attend your Conduct Resolution Meetings, therefore I made a decision using the available information. Housing and Residence Life staff submitted a report that stated you had multiple stickers on your one card because you liked to "collect them". The CCA told you that you would have to remove them, and the report alleged you became rude and made loud comments while getting into the elevator. Based on the available information, it is more likely than not that you were uncooperative with staff and violated housing policies by having multiple stickers on your one card. For these reasons, I am finding you responsible for having violated:

- Student Accountability/6.d. Violation of the Policies for On-Campus Housing./Guests & Visitors
- Student Accountability/3.a. Uncooperative behavior and/or failure to comply with reasonable instructions of University Officials acting in performance of their duties..

As a result of my decision, you have been assigned the following accountability action(s):

1. Warning

You are issued a Warning. This is a written notice that repeated behaviors will result in more significant disciplinary action being taken including University Probation.

2. Civility Educational Paper

Complete by: Friday, June 16, 2023

Obtain the following book from the Cook Library: Forni, P. M. (2002). Choosing Civility: The Twenty-Five Rules of Considerate Conduct. New York: St. Martins Press. If the book is not available through Cook Library, you must search area libraries for a free copy or purchase a copy of the book on your own. After selecting and reading two chapters, you must answer the following questions in a reflection paper: Describe the concept of civility as it relates to your life and the Towson University community. How does the concept of civility apply to your incident and how did your actions ultimately affect others (i.e. individuals, the university community)? Please read the Tiger Pledge, attached to this message. Of the five statements in the Tiger Pledge, which three are most relevant to your life at Towson University and why? The Tiger Pledge was created in part to promote community at the university. What steps can you take in your own life to maintain your role as a responsible citizen in the campus community? Also, when responding to these prompts, reference three specific points you found interesting from your reading, and reflect on those points in your essay. Your reflection paper must be a minimum of 5 complete pages of text, typed, double-spaced, 12 point, Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins (no headers, footers, or title page should be submitted). Your name should appear on the first line of the reflection paper and you must properly cite any references as outlined by the professional style guides for citing sources (APA, MLA, Chicago, etc.). Please refer to the Towson University library website if you need assistance in proper citations: <https://libraries.towson.edu/get-help/citing-sources>. The completed paper must be submitted to my office, Administration Building 236, or via email to sarp@towson.edu on or before the date listed above. Be sure to use your original thoughts and experiences when writing your paper. Cheating, plagiarizing, and use of artificial intelligence is against the Academic Integrity Policy and is therefore a violation of the Code of Student Conduct. If you are found responsible for violations of the Academic Integrity Policy, you may face further disciplinary action. Read the following article and watch the youtube video at the end of the link. <https://realwellnessdoc.com/2018/03/14/choosing-civility/> After reading the article, you must answer the following questions in a reflection paper: 1. Describe the concept of civility as it relates to your life and the Towson University community. 2. How does the concept of civility apply to your incident and how did your actions ultimately affect others (i.e. individuals, the university community)? 3.
